

PRESS RELEASE: 15 May 2018

The release of The Khajana Part One: The Mughals, Misls & Maharajas

The Wahegru Foundation is honoured to announce the launch of The Mughals, Misls & Maharajas - The Khajana Part One: 1708 to 1843

The Khajana, a Wahegru Foundation initiative, a project designed to share the rich heritage of Sikh history in bite size, easy to absorb snippets of information. In compiling over 780 historical data points into the format of an exhibition style timeline, the wider populace has been able to gain a broad insight into the trials, tribulations and victories which have led to the strengthening resolve and determination of the Sikhs.

After the success of The Khajana exhibition, the Wahegru Foundation began receiving requests to reproduce the content of The Khajana to make it more accessible to a wider audience. The team was quick to respond to such requests and immediately began working to fulfil the wishes of the Sangat. In converting the information contained within The Khajana exhibition into a more distribution friendly format, the Wahegru Foundation is honoured to announce the launch of The Mughals, Misls & Maharajas - The Khajana Part One: 1708 to 1843.

Spanning the periods of 1708 till 1843, the book version of the first three periods of The Khajana serves to take our readers on a journey of historical discovery as they come to learn of how the Sikhs went from barely surviving as outlaws in the jungles of Panjab, to eventually ruling the land of the five rivers. The book has been designed to outlast generations as it serves to hold the historical treasure contained within it, with the finish of the book itself leaving the reader wanting to put it up as a display piece on their bookshelf or coffee table.

In releasing The Khajana Part One: The Mughals, Misls & Maharajas, we are also humbled to announce the launch of our sister company, Tegaa Publishing. Serving as the Wahegru Group's publishing wing, the team at Tegaa Publishing aims to bring forth the majesty of the past to readers worldwide.

After a successful debut launch at the Gurmat Chetna Smagam held at Slough, the book is now available for purchase online at tegaapublishing.com. With 100% of the profits from this publication being reinvested to further expand The Khajana, it is our hope and request to all to support this project so that future generations may take in the glorious greatness contained within the pages of Sikh history.

Humbly yours,
Wahegru Foundation

[End]

For images please see tegaapublishing.com for more information please contact the Wahegru Foundation at foundation@wahegru.com

Notes to editors:

The Wahegru Foundation is a non-profit company and serves as the philanthropic wing of Wahegru Investments, providing support and assistance to charitable groups and organisations.